(1) To undertake an objective and comprehensive survey and analysis of the basic needs and potential housing requirements and priorities of the communities and to develop a comprehensive and integrated plan for the provision of adequate housing. This plan shall be the basis for the implementation of the comprehensive housing programme for the achievement of the overall objective of increasing the availability and accessibility of housing.

(2) To provide effective and efficient management and planning of housing projects and programmes, and to implement and administer the various provisions of the Housing Act, the Planning Act, and other related legislation, with the aid of the resources and expertise available to the Housing Department.

(3) To establish and maintain a comprehensive and integrated system of housing schemes and programmes, including the development and rehabilitation of existing housing, the provision of new housing, and the provision of facilities and services to support the development and rehabilitation of housing.

(4) To promote and encourage the participation of private sector developers in the development and provision of housing, and to provide incentives and assistance to encourage such participation.

(5) To establish and maintain a comprehensive and integrated system of housing schemes and programmes, including the development and rehabilitation of existing housing, the provision of new housing, and the provision of facilities and services to support the development and rehabilitation of housing.

(6) To establish and maintain a comprehensive and integrated system of housing schemes and programmes, including the development and rehabilitation of existing housing, the provision of new housing, and the provision of facilities and services to support the development and rehabilitation of housing.

(7) To establish and maintain a comprehensive and integrated system of housing schemes and programmes, including the development and rehabilitation of existing housing, the provision of new housing, and the provision of facilities and services to support the development and rehabilitation of housing.

(8) To establish and maintain a comprehensive and integrated system of housing schemes and programmes, including the development and rehabilitation of existing housing, the provision of new housing, and the provision of facilities and services to support the development and rehabilitation of housing.

(9) To establish and maintain a comprehensive and integrated system of housing schemes and programmes, including the development and rehabilitation of existing housing, the provision of new housing, and the provision of facilities and services to support the development and rehabilitation of housing.

(10) To establish and maintain a comprehensive and integrated system of housing schemes and programmes, including the development and rehabilitation of existing housing, the provision of new housing, and the provision of facilities and services to support the development and rehabilitation of housing.
A series of surveys yields major health county metrics
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Item</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Cost</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>Salary Increases</td>
<td>$10,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Standard costs (e.g., rent, utilities)</td>
<td>$2,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Domestic service charges</td>
<td>$1,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Total</td>
<td>$13,000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Notes:
- Items 2 through 7 are not clearly visible and may require further clarification.
- Revenue is not specified in the table provided.
Robert J. Bush, Ph.D.
University of Miami

Dr. Bush joined the University of Miami, where he is a professor in the School of Law, in 1998. Prior to his appointment, he served as a faculty member at the University of Connecticut School of Law and as an associate professor at the University of Florida College of Law. He has also held positions at the University of Michigan and the University of Minnesota.

Dr. Bush's research interests include property law, environmental law, and natural resource law. He has published numerous articles on these topics and has presented at conferences and seminars around the country.

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

Dr. Bush received his J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School and his B.A. from the University of California, Berkeley.